

Tri2O Triathlon Club

MEMBERS' CODE OF CONDUCT

Tri2O Triathlon Club is committed to making triathlon accessible to everyone by providing coached and non-coached group training sessions in a supportive, friendly and safe environment.

The club is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all its members. The club believes that it is important that members, coaches, administrators, officials and family members associated with the club should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the welfare of others.

Therefore members are encouraged to be open at all times and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the club with our Coaches or escalated to the Club Welfare Officer.

Members are expected to abide by the following members' code of conduct:

- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of age, gender, sexual orientation, athletic ability, cultural background, religion, political persuasion.
- Show respect and consideration for the welfare of others.
- Encourage and support members with training, participation and competition.
- Keep to agreed timings for training and competitions or inform their coach if they are going to be late.
- Support and encourage good sporting practice by abiding by rule and respecting coaches, referees or officials' decisions, including not taking any banned substances or using illegal equipment.
- Wear and bring suitable kit for training sessions as listed in the club rules.
- Pay fees for training or events promptly.
- Members and their supporters should not smoke at club training sessions or whilst representing the club at competitions or events.
- Members and their supporters are not allowed to consume non-medication drugs of any kind at club venues and should not consume alcohol to excess where the club may be brought into disrepute.
- Communicate freely with fellow club members, club coaches and committee members.

By joining Tri2O Triathlon Club, members agree to abide by the Code of Conduct.

If members have any concerns or complaints regarding any aspect of the club they should speak with Unity Speakman (Club Welfare Officer) or Georgia Jackson (Club Chairman).

DATE      05/03/2015